

Big5Hike

It's 2023, and making a difference has never been more needed than now.

We invite you to join the Big5Hike, the main fundraiser for Royal Drakensberg Primary School, which provides a quality education to underprivileged children in this area.

We're aiming to raise R1m and hope you'll join us on this important mission.

Weekend: 19 – 21 May

Hikers donate: R9 000 per adult and R2 500 per child

Hikers receive: An unforgettable experience, 2-nights' stay at The Cavern for free, and a fabulous goodie bag

Hiker's supporters receive: A special rate of R1 330 per person sharing, per night

Sponsor a peak: R25 000 per peak

Book your spot: info@cavern.co.za

Hiking Option 1: You'll summit all the impressive Cavern peaks: Hlolela, Battleship, Sugar Loaf, Cold Hill and Camel's Hump. It is challenging to the average hiker: there are sections of scrambling, and you may at times feel exposed, so it's important to have strong legs and a good head for heights. This hike is around 18kms and takes about 8 hours.

Hiking Option 2: If you're keen for a good walk, but less risk, you can opt for the Litte5Hike, which contours beneath the cliff-line and is still a wonderfully undulating trail. This hike is around 11kms and takes about 7 hours.

All hikers gather midway for a celebratory lunch at Cannibal Cavern, a magnificent cave where the amaZizi forefathers once lived. After this energising and relaxing break, we head to Camel's Hump and then back down to the resort for the infamous welcome home party on the front lawn.

Here's to sweating out the small stuff and embracing the big stuff!
